Homeopathic Combinations and Phenolic Isodes

Homeopathy is the second most widely used method of medicine world-wide. Homeopathic medicines are intended to be recommended by trained health-care providers.

Homeopathy is the art and the science of healing the sick by using substances capable of causing the same symptoms, syndromes and conditions when administered to healthy people.

Homeopathic drugs have been monographed and accepted by the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States (HPUS).

The universal homeopathic principle "similia similibus curentur" - "Let likes be cured by likes".

Phenolic Isodes are homeopathic preparations meant to either desensitize an allergy, or to regulate the body's production and utilization of a hormone or neurotransmitter.

Vitamin, Mineral & Amino Acid Combinations

Vitamins, Minerals, and Amino Acids play a key role in every process in the human body. There are thirteen different known vitamins, segregated into water soluble and fat soluble categories. Vitamins are cofactors for enzymes to produce necessary chemical reactions and energy production.

There are approximately eighteen minerals that have been identified to be essential to human health. Minerals are integral in enzyme production and utilization. The human body requires a minimum of 100 milligrams of each macro-mineral to function properly. Macro-minerals include Calcium, Phosphorus, Potassium, Sodium Chloride, Magnesium, and Sulfur. Trace Minerals, including boron, chromium, copper, iodine, iron, manganese, selenium, vanadium, molybdenum, silicon, and zinc require a minimum daily amount; although, the levels are much lower. Trace mineral daily need is less than 100 milligrams and typically reported in micrograms.

Amino acids are the molecules that make up protein. Amino acids are found in animal and plant protein. Essential amino acids cannot be synthesized; therefore, they must be obtained from food or supplementation. Non-essential amino acids are those that the body produces on its own.

Standard Enzyme Company has intentionally formulated vitamin, mineral and amino acid combinations that are manufactured with the highest quality ingredients under the most rigorous controls. Standard Enzyme formulas have over four decades of empirical research for optimal absorption and efficacy.

WHAT IS VITAL™ TECHNOLOGY?

Computerized ElectroDermal Stress Analysis is the end-product of a 50-year evolution in Biological-Energetic/Biofeedback testing. The computer measures the degree of electrical resistance of the acupuncture points, generally the hands and feet. These measurements indicate the balances or imbalances, of the various organs, systems and glands, and can detect low-level reactions in the body. It also indicates which nutritional or homeopathic remedy and the exact potency that will bring about an energy balance. While being tested there are no side effects, discomforts or piercing of the skin.

EuroMed Global provides training and certification in the Vital™ Technology that will give you the knowledge and hands-on skills to really make a difference with your clients. The software is designed through a step-by-step program to screen for viruses, bacteria, parasites, subluxations, and even stress and emotional interferences. Thus it supplies you with the most advanced natural healthcare technology available.

QUALITY

When it comes to our products at Standard Enzyme Company, our #1 focus is quality. In order to satisfy the needs and expectations of our clients, we must provide them with high-quality products. In doing this, we have established a great quality management program consisting of quality improvement, control and assurance. Our quality control team works closely with the labs and testing of products to maintain the highest quality products in the industry, while also staying on top of FDA regulations. We are constantly analyzing our products and how they work for you and your clients. Products are not only going through rigorous testing at the labs; they are also tested in house and within our technician community, using our EDS technology.

Quality control is very important to Standard Enzyme, and we have two wonderful women who work very hard to make sure that we stay at the top of the line in the healthcare industry.

Dr. Melanie Henning has over twenty years of sales, marketing and leadership experience in health-science, wellness, and sports performance. She has received multiple awards and attributes her success in business to her technical knowledge and clinical background in nutrition, sports psychology, cardiology, oncology, and infertility. Dr. Henning also serves as the Vice President of Standard Enzyme Company and EuroMed Global, and Board Member for the Association of Natural Health. Dr. Henning works closely with our labs to ensure that our products are at the highest standards in the industry. She helps with any FDA compliance issues and is available for any questions or concerns with material sourcing. Along with this, she also helps to teach our distributors more about our products during monthly webinars.
